

Designer George Nelson used walnut wood and steel handles to create this practical and pretty lacquered chest of drawers. Available at danishmodernia.com.

The intergalactic shape and rippled structure of this ULO—unidentified lighting object—by Elektrosvit is—you guessed it!—out of this world. Comes in a set of four. Available at 1stdibs.com.

Both the swirl-shaped upholstery and light blue lacquer are recent additions to this mid-century modern spoon back chair attributed to Baker Furniture. It sits low to the ground, adding to its unique appeal. Available at 1stdibs.com.

Embrace your curves with the Tripod coffee table that is both functional and fun. An elegant wood finish makes this the perfect centerpiece for your family room. Available at burkedecor.com.

Bring royalty to your home with this seven-armed brass wall sconce by designer Angelo Lelli. The rewired lamp is sourced from a castle in southern Germany. Comes in a set of two. Available at 1stdibs.com.

stuck in the middle

MID-CENTURY DESIGNS EVOKE SIMPLER TIMES AND BRING A MODERN FLAIR TO TODAY'S ROOMS.

Enjoy a Brady Bunch rerun or curl up with a good book in this mid-century modern, Nordic-inspired Clyde Chair. Its low-to-the-ground style are sure to garner the attention of others just like Marcia, Marcia, Marcia. Available at joybird.com.

The easy lines of the Roddy sofa are reminiscent of the good ol' days, when the entire family would pile onto the couch for game night. Colorfully upholstered cushions are comfortable and stylish. Available at joybird.com.

Need a hand picking out your next statement piece? The unique mahogany Mudras chair designed by Pedro Friedeberg will have guests wrapped around your finger. Choose from left or right-facing. Available at 1stdibs.com.